

BASF National Wheat Foundation Scholarship Application

BASF has partnered with the National Wheat Foundation for students with connections to the wheat industry who are planning careers in agriculture.

There will be two $2,500 college scholarships for the 2025 academic year. Payment will be sent directly to the student's university or college in January, 2025

To be eligible for a Wheat Scholarship, students must:

- Be a current freshman, sophomore, or junior in college pursuing an agricultural-related degree; preference will be given to, but not limited to, students who's major will directly benefit the wheat industry.
- Be enrolled in an accredited college, university, junior or community college.
- Be a member of the National Association of Wheat Growers (NAWG)*; have a close relative (parent, grandparent) who is a member of NAWG; OR be nominated by someone sitting on the NAWG Board of Directors or a state wheat association board.
- Have not been awarded a scholarship from NWF in the past.

Applicants for the Wheat Scholarships should submit:

1. A completed application form.
2. One letter of recommendation, for instance from a professor, academic advisor or nominating sponsor.
3. A copy of your unofficial transcript.
4. A response to one of the following essay questions, no more than one type-written page in a 12-point font:

Question 1: Discuss the value and importance of wheat to our nation and consumers around the world. Question 2: Describe a problem you have observed in the wheat industry and how you would solve it.

All applications must be emailed ON or BEFORE Dec. 31, 2024

Being a member of NAWG requires either membership in one of NAWG's state associations, or a direct-farmer membership if not located in a NAWG state.*
